

FINISHING UP STRONG

CAMPUS CRUSADE FOR CHRIST AT VIRGINIA TECH

Celebrating What God Has Done

As the semester draws to a close it's been great to think through what God has done on campus this year at Virginia Tech. More recently was the two weeks of canceling activities that we did. Many of the students that I and the other staff work with directly and talked to were very responsible with their extra time and were able to re-establish friendships from the past and start forging new ones with people from their classes, clubs, etc. It was also great to hear how many of them were also able to spend more time connecting with God via prayer and studying and meditating on the Bible personally.

It has also been very humbling to reflect on the beginning of the year and consider where the guys I disciple and lead in Bible study were and see how many drastic changes in their lives God has allowed me to be a part of and facilitate.

Lastly, as I think back to when I arrived for my first day of campus ministry, it's easy to see how God quickly prepared me for ministry and has continued to mature my relationship with Him, understanding of the Bible, and understanding of ministry. So I just ask that you would join me in praising Him for what he has done on the Virginia Tech campus over the past eight months and of course because of His great love of for us.

Thanks again for your support

Thank you all so much for making this year of ministry possible for me. Your consistent financial support has made it possible both for me to live here and to work alongside students sharing the gospel in Venezuela, Christmas Conference in Baltimore, Hampton University, and of course at Virginia Tech. It is also so reassuring to know that there are so many people praying for my ministry specifically when I distribute this update monthly. Thank you so much for that.

This coming year I will be interning for one more year at Virginia Tech. In order to do this I will need to raise another year's worth of support. I would love to meet with all of you again this summer to summarize my ministry this year and answer any questions you have as well as cast vision for the next year and why I think God is calling me to another year of ministry.

Thanks again for everything, I'm looking forward to catching up with each of you this summer.
