

MARCH 12 - 14, 2010

This year's Disciple Now is going to be an amazing experience for students. INHABIT is a weekend of prayer, bible study, worship and fun. Throughout the weekend will be looking at the life of Daniel. When God lives in us we are able to live in the world in a way that is pleasing to Him. We will look at how this was true in Daniel's life and how God used one person who was committed to Him to make His glory known throughout the world. Students will meet together for worship and teaching and also spend time in small groups discussing the things God is saying to them. In addition to incredible Bible teaching and worship, there will be unique times of fellowship and recreation for each small group and their mentors. This year we will also be hosting workshops on Saturday afternoon. Students can choose one of several workshops covering a variety of topics/issues relevant to students.

Our speakers are going to be Greg English, Bryan Dupuis, and Jesse Flury. Our worship leader is going to be the John Ivins Band. You can check out some of their resources at www.johnivins.com. This is going to be an awesome weekend you won't want to miss. Don't forget to invite a friend!

The cost of the weekend including meals, t-shirt, program, and more is only $45. But you must sign up by Wednesday, March 3 to get this price. After this date and up until March 10, the cost is $55.

John Ivins Band

John and his band are based right here in the Richmond area. They lead worship for student groups and conferences all over the south-east. To learn more about John and the band go to:
